

This Man Made Swimming Hole In Florida Will Make You Feel Like A Kid On Summer Vacation

Florida has some of the most beautiful swimming spots in the entire country. In fact, there are over 700 crystal clear springs in the Sunshine State, which makes for seemingly endless summer adventures. While you could easily road trip around the state and stop at wonderful places like this natural swimming spot, we have one place that will have you feeling like a kid again and it so happens that this spot is made by man.

The country's very first man-made crystal clear water lagoon has officially opened in Florida as of last year and you do not want to miss this.

YouTube Crystal Lagoons

The 7.5-acre lagoon which has been named the Epperson Project is located near Tampa, and offers a one-of-a-kind experience that the whole family will love.

YouTube Crystal Lagoons

Imagine luxuries like swim-up bars, an inflatable obstacle course, poolside restaurants, a family-friendly beach, and even a yoga lawn and tidal pool.

YouTube Crystal Lagoons

Sounds too good to be true in Florida, right? It's not.

YouTube Crystal Lagoons

But it isn't just a place to go that the whole family can enjoy, there are over 2,000 homes surrounding this man-made lagoon which makes for the ultimate vacation destination or home base.

YouTube Crystal Lagoons

The very first of its kind in the USA, you'll be relaxing on the beach with a cocktail in hand enjoying the simple pleasures of life without ever needing to leave the state.

YouTube Crystal Lagoons

Who would've thought that this little slice of paradise was man-made to pure perfection?

YouTube Crystal Lagoons

This Man Made Swimming Hole In Florida Will Make You Feel Like A Kid On Summer Vacation

03-04-2019

<https://www.onlyinyourstate.com/florida/man-made-swimming-hole-fl/>